COMPETITION OVERVIEW

Competition Format (9 Team round robin)

- Competing Teams will play each team once during round robin play.
- The 9 teams will self-rank and be placed in a seeded draw based on the rankings.
- The top four teams after round robin will advance to the Page-System Playoff.

Pre-Competition Practice:

- Ten (10) minutes per sheet, moving from sheet to sheet.
- Where curling ice is being installed in a hockey arena, competing team members and coaches will not be allowed to play, practice or match rocks prior to their scheduled competition practice(s) at CURLSASK competition events. The penalty for such an infraction is that the offending team will forfeit last rock advantage in all their games in that level of competition.
- Pre-competition practice is not mandatory.

Skill Based Team Ranking System (SBTRS)

- The SBTRS will include the cumulative distance of all of the pre-game Draw Shots to the tee for last stone advantage in the first end of all round robin games.
- The SBTRS may be used to rank teams for the playoff round, any tiebreakers and rock selection.

Pre-Game Practice (Pre-Playoff):

- Nine (9) minutes on game sheet plus 1 minute to complete the LSD
- First practice is 30 minutes prior to game time. Second practice is 20 minutes prior to game time.
- Each team will be assigned both stone colours equally or +/- 1 if an odd number of games is played.
- The first named team in the draw will deliver red stones and will have first pre-game practice. The team throwing yellow stones will practice immediately after red team's LSD.
- The Red team will deliver the clockwise rotation and the Yellow team will deliver the counter-clockwise rotation (full sweeping allowed).
- Pre-game practice is not mandatory, but teams should be in attendance for LSD (Last Stone Draw)
- During the event, each player on the team MUST throw a minimum of one (1) of the team's Last Stone Draws.

Rock Color Assignment & Last Rock Advantage (Pre-Playoff)

- Last Stone Draw (LSD) will be completed for all round robin games to determine last rock advantage.
 - At the conclusion of each of the team's pre-game practice, one player per team delivers one stone to the tee toward the home end with brushing. The official will measure and record the distance from the tee. Stones that cannot be measured due to their close proximity to the tee shall be assigned a distance of 0. Stones that are located outside the 6 foot perimeter shall be assigned a distance of 185.4cm.
 - The team with the lesser LSD will have last rock advantage in the first end of play.
 - Stones finishing in the house are measured. If the measure can be inserted, the stone is measurable. If the stone is so close to the tee centre that the tape does not register a number, the stone is assigned one half of the first number that the tape displays; i.e. If the first number is 0.1 cm, the stone will be assigned a score of 0.05 cm.
 - The team practicing first will choose the clockwise or counter clockwise turn for their LSD. They shall notify the opposition and official before practice begins. The team practicing second will deliver the opposite turn for their LSD.
 - If the team with first practice records a distance of 0 or 185.4cm, another player from that team (different from 1st player) shall throw one more stone using the same turn to record a second distance to be used if ties occur. If the second player to deliver records a distance of 0 or 185.4cm, the team will leave the ice and the other team will practice.
 - If following the second's team practice, that team matches the first team in distance over two stones, another player from the first practice team will alternate throwing with the second practice team until last rock in the first end is decided.
 - Any team in the process of completing their LSD commits a rule infraction as observed by the Head Official (ex. Touched running stone, hogline violation) will record a distance of 185.4cm. If it is the team with first practice, another player from that team shall throw one more stone to record a second distance to be used if ties occur.

- If an LSD draw that has come to a stop is moved by a team member prior to the measure by the official, the LSD will be assigned the distance to the next defined circle away from the button. Original position was:
 - o On or biting the button – assigned 15.2cm
 - o On or biting the four-foot – assigned 61.0cm
 - o On or biting the eight-foot – assigned 121.9cm
 - o On or biting the twelve-foot – assigned 182.9cm
- Any team that is not present for the LSD or significantly delays the process will forfeit last rock advantage in the first end for that game and will record a distance of 185.4cm. The Head Official will make the decision on forfeiture of last rock advantage in the first end and his/her decision will be final.
- The opposing team must remain in the viewing area behind the glass during the opponent's last stone draws.
- During the event, each player on the team MUST throw a minimum of one (1) of the team's Last Stone Draws. Teams must declare to the official which player will deliver the LSD prior the beginning of the first practice.
- Coaches must remain off the ice surface and NO COACHING is allowed during the team's LSD.

Team Ranking and Tiebreaking

- The following criteria (in order) will be used to rank the teams at the completion of the round robin:
 - Teams will be ranked according to their win/loss record;
 - If two teams are tied, the team that won their round robin game will be ranked higher;
 - Where three or more teams are tied, the record of the games between the tied teams shall provide the ranking (Should this procedure provide a ranking for some teams but not all, then the record of the games between the remaining teams that are still tied shall determine the ranking);
 - For all remaining teams whose ranking cannot be determined by 1. or 2. or 3., ranking is determined by the Skill Based Team Ranking System (SBTRS).
- When teams are tied for a playoff position they shall only be eliminated from the playoffs by playing a tiebreaker game(s).
- The Competition Liaison shall make all final decisions with regard to the administration of tiebreakers.

Playoff Rock Selection & Last Rock Advantage

- For the 1 vs 2 and 3 vs 4 page playoff games, the higher ranked team will receive last rock advantage in the first end or first selection of rocks.
- For the semi-final game the team with the higher ranking will receive last rock advantage in the first end OR first selection of rocks.
- For the final, the winner of the 1 vs 2 game, is considered the higher ranked team and will receive last rock advantage in the first end or first selection of rocks.
- For playoffs games, teams shall be allowed to select one complete set of rocks for each playoff game. Selection of a set of rocks determines color. Rock handles shall not be changed from one set of rocks to another.
- Teams may choose from one of the sheets used during the round robin, exception for combined Men's & Women's Events. For combined events with 6 sheets of ice, the Competition Liaison and Head Official will determine 3 sheets of ice that each gender will be allowed to choose a set of rocks for playoff games. For combined events with 4 sheets of ice, the Competition Liaison and Head Official will determine 2 sheets of ice that each gender will be allowed to choose a set of rocks for playoff games.
- For tiebreaker games, the team which won the round robin game will have choice of first end last rock advantage or first selection of rocks.
- All tiebreaker games shall be played with the rocks from the sheet assigned.
- Declaration of last rock and/or a set of rocks shall be made within 15 minutes of a team being asked to make the selection by the Head Official. Failure to comply shall result in last rock and rocks being assigned.
- Any team pre-determined to have last rock advantage in the first end will practice first for Pre-Game practice.
- If the LSD is not required for playoff games, pre-game practice will be 10 minutes for each team.
- The Competition Liaison shall make all final decisions with regard to the administration of the playoffs.
- The Semi-Final and Final may occur on the same sheet of ice.

Playoff Teams Practice & Playoff Pre-Game Practice Times

- If required, playoff teams will be allowed a one half hour practice at an appropriate time as determined by the Head Official and Competition Liaison.

- For all playoff games, the team that has chosen last rock advantage in the first end will have first pre-game practice.

Team Meeting, Ceremonies and Sponsored Functions

- It is mandatory that all teams have representation at the CURLSASK Officials/Team meeting unless permission is granted by the Competition Liaison. Failure to do so will result in forfeiting last rock in the first end for the entire competition, including playoffs.
- It is mandatory that all team members and coaches will attend the opening ceremonies, official banquet/luncheon and other sponsored functions unless permission is granted by the Competition Liaison. Failure to do so will result in forfeiting last rock in the first end for the entire competition, including playoffs.

TEAM DEFINITION AND SUBSTITUTE/REPLACEMENT PLAYERS

- A team shall include a minimum of two players from the original registered team and one substitute, one replacement, or player(s) from the players pool if the rules of the competition so provide.
- A team may play with three players, with the first two players each delivering three stones in each end. Under no circumstances may a team play with less than three players delivering stones.
- Alternate players/5th players are not recognized in CURLSASK competitions at any level, but may attend championship to be used as substitute/replacement players as per CURLSASK guidelines. Alternate players who attend championships do so at their own expense. Alternate players are not given ice access, do not march in ceremonies, are not recognized with the team at any functions, and do not receive any awards from the provincial sponsor or Curling Canada.
- A coach who has been coaching a team in the event is ineligible to be a substitute/replacement player during the event.
- At the conclusion of the Women's Provincial Championship the championship team must confirm an alternate player to travel with the team to the National Championship.

SUBSTITUTION

- Following the registration of their four players by the entry deadline and, at any level of the competition, should a player be unable to play due to extenuating circumstances (as approved by CURLSASK Chief Official or the Event Competition Liaison), the team will be permitted one eligible substitute or the option of continuing with the remaining three players.

Exception:

- In Mixed competition four players are required to commence and conclude a game, therefore two substitutes would be allowed.
- When CURLSASK or Curling Canada Competition dates conflict, the team will be allowed to select a maximum of 2 substitutes. If a substitute becomes a replacement and that member is unable to play, the team will be allowed another substitute.

The following are criteria for all substitutes at all CURLSASK competitions:

- a) The substitute is a temporary player who may play the position of the indisposed player or lower.
- b) The substitute must be a member of an affiliated CURLSASK Club. The substitute is subject to the eligibility rules regarding gender, age, and any specific substitution rules of the Women's competition.
For Provincials, a substitute may come from anywhere in the province, not be a registered member of a team competing in the provincial event but could be from a registered team who has been previously eliminated from Women's competition.
- c) A substitute can substitute for multiple teams as long as that substitute meets the eligibility criteria of the specific competition.
- d) The team requiring the substitute must indicate if substitute is required for one game, multiple games, or the entire competition.
- e) Is committed to the team he/she substitutes until being released. He/she may then substitute for another team at that level.
- f) The substitute is not required to pay the Curling Canada participant fee.
- g) The Competition Liaison and Head Official involved must be advised of any substitution.
- h) At CURLSASK Provincial Competitions, the host club shall provide a pool of substitutes. Should a team require a substitute, they may select an eligible substitute as per the rules of competition OR a player from the substitute pool. The substitute pool is for use of emergency substitute situations and will only be available for selection during the competition.

REPLACEMENT

- Following the registration of their four players by the entry deadline should a team decide to permanently replace a player, meaning the new player becomes a registered member of the team, the original player being replaced shall be disqualified from further play in that and any subsequent levels of play in the Province in that competition for that year.

The following are criteria for all replacements for all CURLSASK competitions:

- a) At all times a team must have at least two (2) original registered members.
- b) The replacement must be a member of an affiliated CURLSASK Club. The substitute is subject to the eligibility rules regarding gender and age of that competition
- c) The replacement is required to pay Curling Canada's participant fee.
- d) The Competition Liaison and Head Official involved must be advised of any substitution.

In special circumstances, a replaced player may apply to CURLSASK Chief Official for reinstatement of eligibility in order to enter the competition with another team. Application must be made in writing (e-mail is sufficient) to CURLSASK Chief Official at least 3 days prior to wanting to compete with any other team at any level of the competition. A player may only request to be reinstated once for each competition.

- A substitute or player from the player's pool who joins a team prior to the start of a game may deliver stones in the indisposed player's position or lower. A replacement in this situation may deliver stones in any position. The team shall re-declare their delivery rotation at this time if required.
Position of indisposed player is determined as follows:
 - If the substitute is required for the first game, at the first level of the competition, line-up will be as indicated on the playdown registration form.
 - If the substitute is required for first game, at subsequent levels of competition, the line-up will be as indicated on the competition winning form submitted to the CURLSASK office.
 - If the substitute is required for any other games in the competition, the line up will be determined by the previous game line-up.
- If a substitute or player from the player's pool is activated prior to the start of a game, the original player requiring the substitute will not be allowed to rejoin the team until the next game or subsequent games.
- A substitute or player from the player's pool who joins a team between ends may deliver stones in the indisposed player's position or lower. Players may move up or down the delivery rotation only as required to position the substitute or player from the player's pool and the team shall re-declare their delivery rotation at this time.
- A substitute or player from the player's pool who joins a team during an end in play, because a player(s) is unable to complete the delivery rotation declared by the team at the start of the game, would replace the sidelined player(s) in the team's delivery rotation. At the beginning of the next end the team may re-declare their delivery rotation subject to the above point. The substitute, pool player or replacement may only enter a game during an end if they deliver a stone(s) within the end. The sidelined player shall not rejoin the team until the next game unless the team loses subsequent player(s) and is therefore placed in a default position.
- A team that commences a game with three players and expects the fourth player to join the team during the game, must establish the team's four player delivery rotation prior to commencing the game.
- A player who is late for a game may enter the game between ends or may enter an end in progress provided he/she is able to deliver a stone(s) within the team's established delivery rotation.
- A player who has left the game may re-enter the game between ends or during an end in progress providing he/she is able to deliver a stones(s) within the team's established delivery rotation. If an eligible substitute has been activated, the sidelined player shall not rejoin the team until the next game unless the team loses subsequent player(s) and is therefore placed in a default position.

COACHES INFORMATION

COACHES REQUIREMENTS

The coach must be at least 21 years of age.

The coach must be minimum NCCP Competition Coach Certified in Curling or minimum old NCCP equivalent in curling.

Coaches attending a National Championship must be confirmed by the CURLSASK Executive Director and Curling Canada.

CURLSASK requires that coaches in curling participating in CURLSASK sanctioned events have completed the online Respect in Sport (RiS) certification.

Certification can be completed on-line at <https://sasksrc.respectgroupinc.com>

COACHES SEATING

Seating will be reserved for coaches at the home end and they must access the ice from the home end during timeouts or fifth end breaks. When a time-out is called the official will look to this area for the coaches. The official will not give extra time if the coach is not in the designated area.

RECORDING DEVICES & STATISTICAL ANALYSIS

Coaches will be allowed to have recording devices and/or electronic devices for statistical analysis in their reserved seating area for the purpose of game recording and statistical analysis. If the reserved coaches seating is in the playing area, all devices must have their 'send and receive' functions disabled.

TIME-OUTS

Time-outs may only be called from the playing surface by a player of the team that is in control of the house. Coaches may physically signal a request for a time-out to their players on the ice.

Each team will be ALLOWED to call two (2) time-outs per game and one (1) time-out for each extra end. Each time-out will last 90 seconds which includes travel time for the coach. Coaches running or jogging during the time-out will not be tolerated. The team will lose the timeout if this occurs.

Time-out ends for both teams when the coach of the calling team leaves the playing surface.

ICE ACCESS

Practices (Pre-Competition, Pre-Game, Playoff Practice)

- Coaches are allowed access on the ice surface during all practices with appropriate curling footwear.
- Coaches are not allowed to deliver stones or brush stones in any practice session.

Time-outs

- The team that called the time-out can communicate with their coach at either end of the sheet as long as getting to the away end (in the Head Official's view) does not distract other players or disrupt other games.
- The team that did not call the time-out will meet with their coach at the home end.
- If there is an open sheet adjacent to the game sheet, the coach calling the time-out can access the area adjacent to the house at either end. Coaches must have appropriate footwear to be allowed on the adjacent sheet of ice.
- If both discussions are at the same end and it is congested, the Head Official may allow the team calling the time-out to conduct their discussions on the ice behind the backline.
- Because each rink is different, the Head Official will have to decide what he/she will allow when they do the pre-competition inspection.

SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES

Unquestionably, the landscape has changed in terms of the ways that players, fans and the media interact, and it's recognized that the various forms of social media represent a valuable opportunity for communication. Competitors are encouraged to embrace these social media, as they present avenues to promote the game of curling as well as their own teams. But there must be certain responsibilities attached to the use of these social media outlets, particularly when competitors are participating in CURLSASK sanctioned and provincial championship events and visibility is at its highest.

With that in mind, here are some guidelines:

- Be aware of the fact that as competitors in a provincial event you are in the spotlight, and competitors are always representing not only themselves, but their teams, teammates, families and CURLSASK as participants in all CURLSASK events. There is no on-off switch when it comes to this responsibility.
- There is no such thing as “off the record” when it comes to communication via social media. Hitting the “return” button on a Tweet makes it part of the public record, and it can be distributed to thousands of people in just a few seconds. Avoid using social media when angry or consuming alcohol. Also, during events it's recommended to avoid reading Twitter responses or Facebook posts to your team. It's a fact of life that there will be naysayers who take pleasure in trying to bring competitors and/or their teammates down. Responding to them achieves nothing. Avoiding them is the best idea. Ideally, have someone external to the team filtering the responses to prevent negative messages getting through.
- Be smart about what is presented as a message. There's never anything wrong with taking the high road when it comes to discussing events, officials or opponents. Competitors help their sport and their team by presenting a positive, respectful image to those who read your message. Thanking fans and praising teammates and opponents are good ways to do this.
- Competitors hurt the sport and hurt their teammates by sending out negative messages of their own, or by sharing/retweeting negative messages from other people. These can consist of criticism of opponents, teammates, officials, events, sponsors, facilities and playing conditions, or sexist, racist or homophobic slurs. This is a year-round consideration, but be aware that if it happens during a CURLSASK event, competitors will be held accountable as per the CURLSASK Code of Conduct for anything that CURLSASK decides is bringing the sport, an event, or an event official into “disrepute”. The following is an excerpt from CURLSASK's Code of Conduct:
 - As it relates to discussion on any social media, all athletes/coaches agree not to use any obscene or offensive language, place any material that is libelous, abusive, or hateful, constitutes unauthorized advertising, invades anyone's privacy, or encourages conduct that would constitute a criminal offense. This includes, but is not limited to, under-age drinking. If athletes/coaches post about a CurlSask event, you are responsible for ensuring that any material posted (text, images, or other multimedia content) does not violate or infringe upon the copyright, patent, trademark or any other personal or proprietary rights of any third party. All postings will be respectful of CurlSask Rules and Curling Canada Rules for General Play, and all other individuals/parties discussed.
- During CURLSASK events, competitors should be conscious of sponsors. It is a given that the CURLSASK partnerships with companies are responsible for the successful operation of CURLSASK events. CURLSASK would ask competitors to respect those partnerships by not: A) distributing messages that may be seen as critical of the sponsors; and B) distributing messages praising direct competitors of our sponsors. This applies specifically during provincial events. CURLSASK acknowledges that some teams have partnerships with competing sponsors. The fact is, there are more than 340 days in a year to praise team sponsors who may be in conflict.
- During championship events, out of respect for the integrity of the game, players, and coaches who are on the field of play will be prohibited from using any form of social media from 15 minutes prior to games until the completion of the game. Teams can, however, appoint someone sitting in the stands or watching on television to send messages via social media so long as there is no direct contact with the players and/or coaches in the field of play.
